TERMS OF ACCEPTANCE

The purpose of chiropractic is to restore and maintain the flow of the nerve energy along the spinal cord and its nerve roots. Any misalignment of the spinal bones can interfere with the flow of this nerve energy. Interference to the nerve energy flow may disrupt the proper activity of various organs, muscles, or body parts.

The only goal of chiropractic is to correct spinal misalignments called vertebral subluxations. This restores the flow of nerve energy so that the parts of the body may have a normal nerve supply.

With proper nerve supply, health can improve. In some people symptoms may clear quickly. In others, the process is slower. Unfortunately, in some people there is only partial healing or none at all.

Regardless of what disease or condition is called, the chiropractor does not offer to heal or treat it. Nor does the chiropractor offer advice regarding the treatment of disease. The only goal is to allow the body to do its job. The only method is the correction of these subluxations. The chiropractor promises no cure from and offers no treatment of disease.

I have read the above, understand it fully, and undertake chiropractic care on this basis.
